

STUDENT AWARDS IN BOOK COLLECTING

2020

Katherine Churchill
(Bowdoin, before 1950)

Hannah Barker

(Zen in the Art of Collecting: The Works of Ray Bradbury)

2022

Austin Benson

(The Little Office[s] of Our Lady, 1599–1966:
Online Book Collecting during the COVID-19 Pandemic)

Cherrie Kwok

(Postcolonial Ephemera: Collecting Fragments of Decadent Hong Kong)

Rebecca Barry

(Expanding Generic Bounds of Space-Time: 150 Years of Speculative and Science Fiction)

2024

Christian Daichi Carlson

(To Sing One's Verses in Full: Reassembling the World of Elizabeth Daryush)

Lewis Kothmann

(Understanding the Middle Kingdom: A Collection on Contemporary Chinese Political Economy and Relevant History and Culture)

Joseph Johns

(Pursuing the Common Good: Collecting Works of Political Philosophy)

BATTESTIN FELLOWSHIPS

These fellowships, inaugurated in 2013, were established in honor of Martin Battestin, emeritus professor of English at the University of Virginia, and his wife Ruthe, a literary scholar and honorary member of the Society's Council. The aim of the fellowships is to provide summer support for research in the UVa library by UVa graduate students who are working on bibliographical or textual projects.

2019

Samuel Maxwell Grimes

(Transgression and Resistance in the Buddhist Commentary Padmavati)

Lloyd Sy

(Creative History and the Manuscript of James Fenimore
Cooper's Mercedes of Castile)

Michael J. Van Hoose

(An Econometric Study of the British Fiction Market, 1800–1829)

Madeline Lee Zehnder

(Early American Perspectives on ‘Pocket-Sized’ Books)

2020

Lucia Alden

(Performing Morality: A Comparative Study of Marginalia
in Early Modern Drama and The Faerie Queene)

Emmalee Dove

(Affective Interventions in Manuscript and Early Printed
Books of Hours in the Albert and Shirley Small Special Collections
Library, c. 1240–1599)

Bridget Reilly

(Framing Melville: The Physical and Critical Manifestations of Moby-Dick)

Anne Marie Thompson

(Modern and Contemporary Poetry among the Book Arts:
A Study of Cross-Genre Compositions)

2021

Austin J. Benson

(Digital and Manuscript-Based Approaches to Understanding the South English Legendary)

Rebecca Elise Foote

(Mapping the Poetic Imaginary: Julia de Burgos in the Archive)

Kelsey Eren Jaye

(Mapping Deliverance: Spatial Representations of Slavery and Liberation in the 1858–1872 Writings of John Washington)

Meaghan M. Walsh

(‘The Humor of Life’: Caricature and Satire in Turn-of-the-Twentieth-Century Illustration)

Chloe Downe Wells

(Tracing Steichen’s Mark in Stieglitz’s Camera Work)

2022

Molly Kathryn Kluever

(A Particular ‘Prick of Conscience’: UVA MMS E and Its Place in the Textual History of the Middle English Poem)

Lucas Martinez

(Touching Borges: Poetry and Presence in the Borges Archive)

William M. Nichols

(The Scholia to Ovid's Metamorphoses in UVA MSS 9772)

Samantha L. Stephens

((Type)ing Brathwaite: Digital Transformations from Paper to Pixel)

2023

Kaitlyn Airy Johnson

(A Leap in Memory: Mapping the Manuscripts of Ruth Stone)

Isabel Rose Bielat

(Romantic Nationalism, Transnational Celebrity, and the Politics of Nineteenth-Century British Print)

Heather Alison Moody

(A Digital Edition of Ratna Lingpa's Works, Vol. 1 and Vol. 2)

Anne Laura Persons

(Picturing the Underground Railroad: Engraving and Extraction in the 1879 Revised Edition of William Still's The Underground Railroad Records)

Jared Willden

(Political and Religious Framings of Catherine de Medici in the Discours Merveilleux: A Bibliographic Approach)

Sophia Sonam Zaklikowski

(Seeing Story & Selfhood in Commonplace Books)

2024

Matthew Blake Farwell

(Building the Mighty Wurlitzer—Frank Wisner, the Central Intelligence Agency and the University of Virginia)

Spencer Grayson

(UVA MSS. 9202: Sir Robert Rich and Colonial Logics of the Archives)

Marissa J. Kessenich

(Rhetorics of Recovery: Counter-Historical Reading and Locating Sally Hemings's Archive)

Cy F. March

(Following the Trace: Tracking Poetic Beginnings & Play in the Journals of Morgan Lucas Schuldt)

Annyston H. Pennington

(Analyzing the Elegiac Artist Book)